

Charity fete is a star-studded success

Colourful Coffins' founders Mary and Kevin Tomes raised an amazing £2,000 for charity by organising a fun garden fete at their Oxfordshire home.

Held on the Fourth of July as a nod to Kevin's American roots, the event attracted over 200 guests and the couple entered into the spirit of the celebrations with a visit to the face painter.

A barbecue, plus a brass band, classic cars and a glider, a giant chess board and even a coconut shy kept everyone entertained and money from the event will be donated to Masonic charities.
